| We are over the moon with the progress our son has made this year. We are very impressed with Hayes Meadow and love all the focus placed on making it a happy and fun place to learn. |
| My son has thrived since being at Hayes Meadow. He enjoys school and we are happy that he is being well cared for and encouraged to work hard to achieve great results. |
| Thank you – such hardworking, dedicated staff! |
| Lovely school, teachers second to none. Would recommend to anyone. |
| We couldn't be more pleased with how our daughter has come long over the last year. We are very happy. |
| We couldn't be more happy with Hayes Meadow. Everyone at the school is supportive and friendly and our daughter has continued to thrive in your care. Thank you so much for all you do to make school such a happy place. |
| Fantastic school where all of my children have felt safe and have had excellent starts to life. |
| Homework should not be given in half terms as this is family time and holiday time. An arts and crafts club would be brill. |
| My child has made considerable progress not only in academic achievements but also in confidence. |
| A very caring school to not only pupils but also parents. |
| Nothing is ever too much. Fantastic school. |
| I feel my child is thriving at school and enjoys coming to school and love learning. |
| Would be helpful to have feedback from things like spelling tests. |
| Timing of communication could be given attention. |
| Headteacher is very helpful and teachers are great. My kids love their teachers. |
| Think Year 1 is too young for homework especially in current educational systems. |
| The dealings with school to date have been very informative and supportive, it appears that lots of activities are available for the children. |
| Young children get too much homework and are pressured to complete it. Parents are expected to attend school too often. |
| I think Year 4 should get more homework. |

Thank you for your feedback and comments. We will use your comments to make further improvements to our school during the next academic year.
