

iHV Parent Tips

Looking after your children's teeth

Dental decay is the most common oral disease affecting children and young people in UK, yet it is largely preventable.

Please scan the QR code to take you to the website.

Please scan the QR code to take you to the NHS healthier families website.

Please scan the QR code to take you to the NHS Looking after your baby's teeth site.